KRAVES

As I try to remember yesterday wondering about tomorrow,
I realize that I should only concentrate on today.

We look back now to one time, some time,
something that has already happened.
Was there that time?
Could it have been?

Possibly there are some days we could have missed, and didn't;
and those never missed,
which we should have.
But we can say this:
"We have lived them all."

HOMECOMING 1977

Each moment of our life has it's own beauty...
this one we have lived,
and we will remember.

As I sit and remember,
those small times
really count.
Boy, do they count!

We'll try -
and we'll go on trying;
For we know that we alone must do it.

To look back in hopes of correcting an unwarranted error;
to know we could have - to accept that we did not;
but yet to go on.

The dawning has come and what we make of the daylight is ours alone . . .
So let's open our eyes and look to this day - seeing things in a different way.

Our memories are the only sanity that the world can offer us at this time.
The rest seems so unsure.

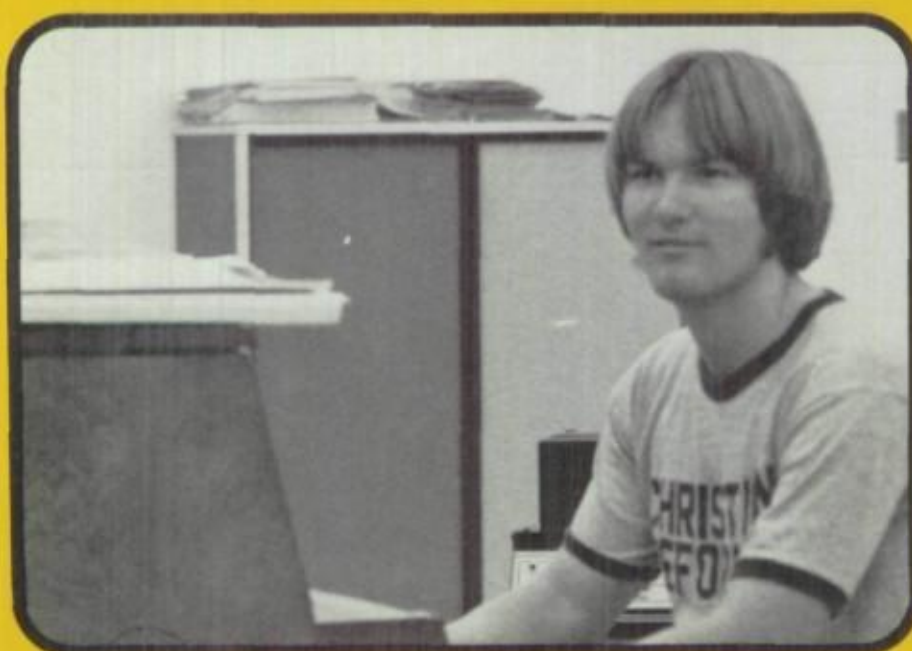

SENIORS E V E N T Y E I G H T

Afoot and light-hearted, we'll take to the open road,
for it is ours...

Yup, we'll take to the road, often looking back and remembering...

...then realizing that the road leads to wherever we choose.
And with time,
we will place one foot
before the other,
and walk those miles ahead.

Senior Class

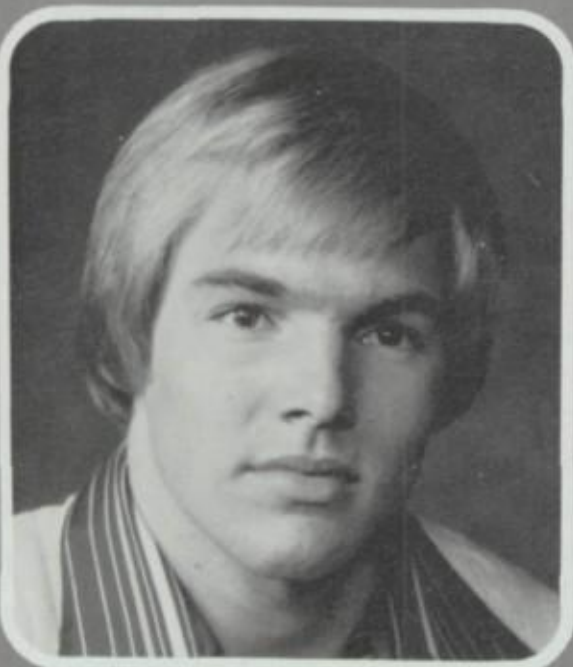

Today is ours.
What is it we fear?

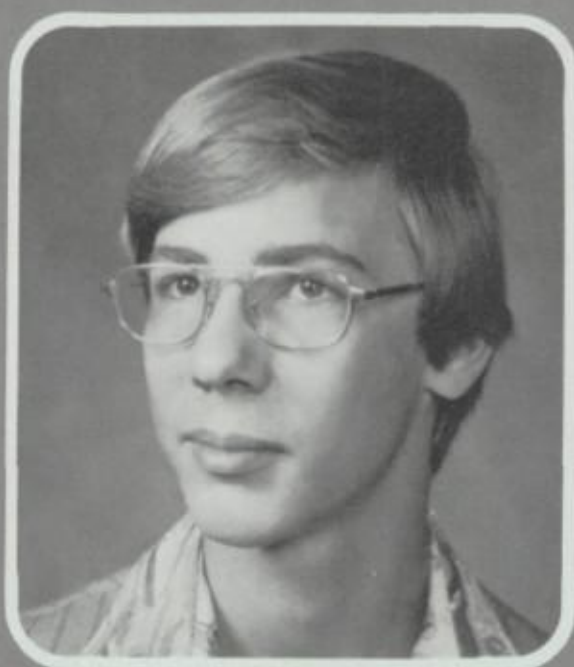

Today is ours,
and we have it here.

But what about tomorrow?

The road is long

"One difference I've appreciated here at Kamiakin, as compared with my school in Norway, is that school is more enjoyable because there is more of a selection of courses. There seems to be more pressure on students to succeed in Norway. The thing I've enjoyed most as a foreign exchange student is the traveling I've done. I've especially enjoyed the beautiful countryside in the Pacific Northwest. I'm happy to have taken a part in helping the Kennewick American Field Service Club get started this year. This year the American Field Service is sending two Kennewick students overseas as foreign exchange students. I wish to thank all of my teachers and the students at Kamiakin and especially to my host family, the Ray Haeg's, for everyone's friendliness, help and understanding."

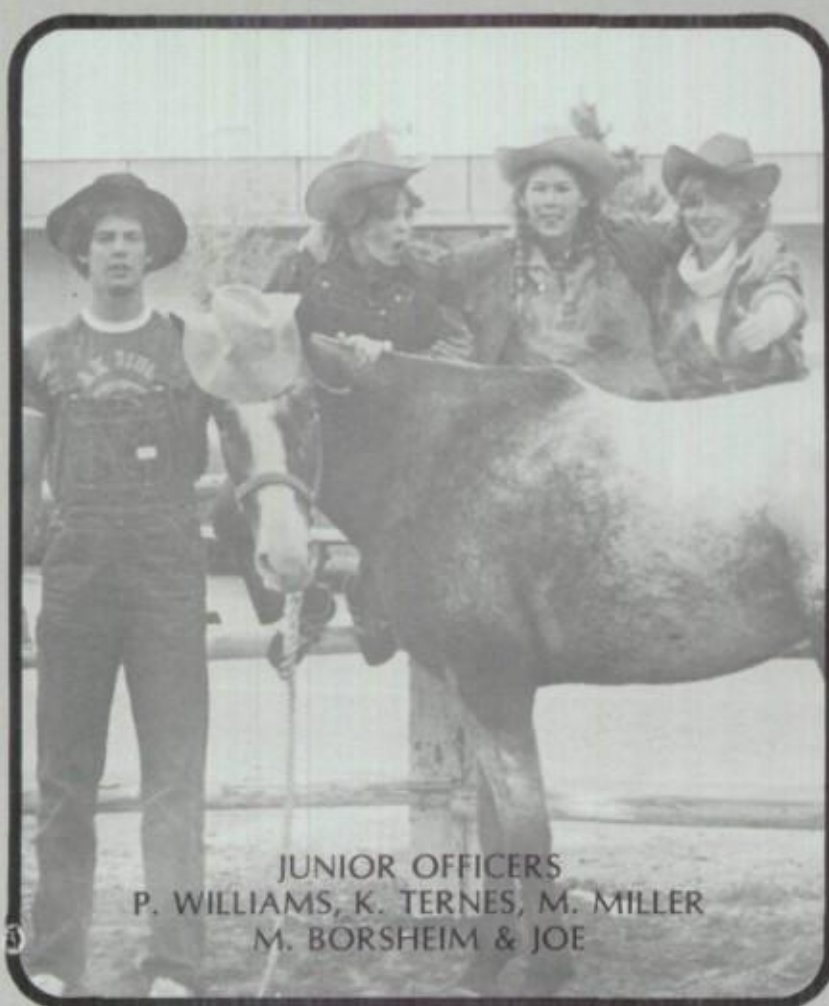

"In Germany, I had gone to Corvinianum High School with the same class of students that I'd been with my first ten years as a student. At Kamiakin, I like very much the variety of classes and the chance to meet so many people. I've also enjoyed the informal relationships between students and teachers, whereas, in my country, we are more formal. I really love the pep assemblies and the school spirit here. I took up tennis this year both Fall and Spring and it's been very enjoyable. I wish to thank my teachers and all of the students at Kamiakin, but especially I want to thank Teresa and Mike Fleming, my sister and brother, for their support. My most rewarding experience, though, has been the warmth and love and openness that my host family the Bruce Fleming's have shown me. I've appreciated them very much and I will remember this year."

KAMIAKIN HIGH SCHOOL 1977-78 BASKETBALL

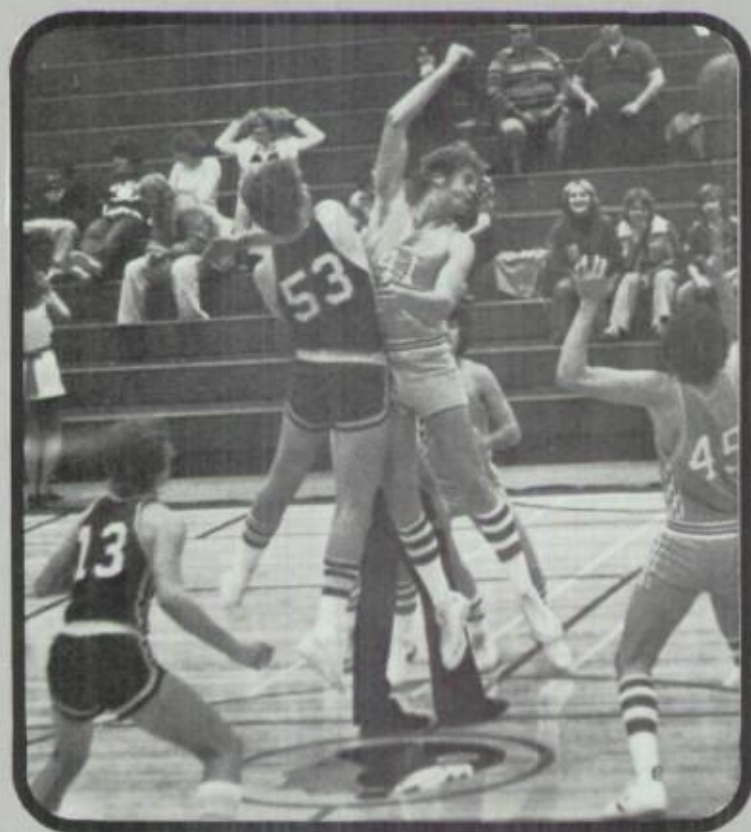

The regular season was a bit disappointing as the Braves went up and down like a "yo-yo" and finished with an 11-13 record in league play. Kamiakin was led by the floor play of Ty Hagerling, the defense of Jeff Morrow, the rebounding of Steve Fazendin, Lee Adams, and Mike Swadlow, and the scoring of Steve Adams.

The Kamiakin Braves finished the season with an excellent showing at the District PlayOffs. After knocking off #2 Eisenhower and #3 Walla Walla, the Braves once again faced Pasco for the #2 spot to the Regional Tournament. The Bulldogs had the edge all season and once again stopped the Braves 66-58, leaving the Braves one win short of State Tournament Play.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT

PRESIDENT - Russ Davis

Student Government at Kamiakin is again an active part of our school life. The student officers worked hard during the summer attending leadership training sessions for a week at Cispus. They were able to bring back a number of new ideas for getting students working on school spirit and responsibility. The Congress is working toward more active input on school matters related to student activities. Officers have been working with other schools in the area through Inter-High to solve common problems and exchange ideas. The goal, as always, is to promote student involvement in areas that concern students.

Societe des Mioches, French Club of Kamiakin, is open to all students enrolled in French or who have ever taken French. There are no dues, but le Cochon-Mecque, our bank Piggy, is always very hungry for dimes and quarters. Our club is run by an Executive Council composed of French Club officers plus the slate of officers from each class. The Societe always grants honorary membership to all the Kamiakin foreign students, and they are always included in French Club activities. French Club sponsors an Amity Institute each year. These young people intend to teach English when they return to their native countries. Our social activities are varied: dinners at Le Petit Restaurant, birthdays at Farrel's, French bread sales, sight-seeing by airplane . . .

TOTEM

1978

"God created all things, but he took special care in crafting the rose and you."

It is difficult to believe that the 1977-78 school year was only one year. In the years to come, as we look back, it will seem as if this one year actually spanned several. So many happenings; so many memories developed. The Totem Staff has tried to develop your yearbook in such a way as to enable you to look through its pages and relive the year as it actually was: all the happenings, all the events, and all the memories. There was no single purpose behind the year 1977-1978 and no single spirit. There was, however, a single, prevalent thought throughout the year: the belief that it all would be remembered above all else. We, the Totem Staff, hope your yearbook helps to enhance all your memories.

The Enchanted is the biography of a critical moment in the life of a young girl—the moment when she turns from girlhood to womanhood. In this moment Isabel's belief in the life of the spirit is so strong that it is sufficient to evoke a real phantom, and even to threaten this world with a spiritual revolution.

The Inspector interviews the Mangebois Sisters. Armande: "It is our opinion that the drowned man has come back in the form of a ghost."

Miss Isabel introduces her 8th grade class to the Inspector.

The Inspector shows his disapproval of Miss Isabel's teaching methods. Inspector: "You have deliberately misled these children as to the nature of life. You are relieved of your post effective immediately."

The Doctor and Inspector discuss how to protect Isabel and the entire town from the Ghost. Mayor: "Doctor, do you think you can tune Nature like a piano?"

The Mayor, the Doctor and the Supervisor listen intently as the Inspector plans a trap for the Ghost.

The Inspector discusses his plan with the two hired executioners. Inspector: "The government gives you full authority to kill him."

Isabel explains how she managed to attract the Ghost. Isabel: "I've caught you in my trap. I have a ghost-trap in my room. Didn't you know?"

The Inspector cowers as his attempts to execute the Ghost fail. Inspector: "Be calm, my children ..."

I, Carl Sakshaug, leave my best wishes to foreign exchange students who will be coming to Kamiakin in the future years.

I, Diane Schenz, will my special ability to "understand" to Stacy Pflieger.

I, Carol Schweiger, leave my younger brother Danny, enough guts and good sense to make it through.

I, Cathy Slipp, leave a herd (case) of "wild ones" to Ms. Slick.

I, Lora Snider, leave my younger sis, Brenda, the ability to say "NO".

I, Teresa Saucier, will my "bubbly" personality to my lit'l brother, Gabe Maltos.

I, Dennett Sommer, leave the choir keyboard to one who's daring.

I, Susan Stoner, leave my brain to anybody who wants them and "God" help 'em.

I, Mike Stong, bequeth my Cherry picker jokes, blisters and the creap-n-crud to next years J-V Team.

I, Sandy Strait, leave my quick temper to the food throwers in the cafeteria.

I, Dan Sullivan, leave Darren Cloyd 50 bars of soap, which he should use to wash his mouth out when he says something dirty, which is most of the time.

I, Vicki Taylor, leave my ability to say 300 words in a minute to Cindy Pierce.

I, Laurie Thompson, will my name "FROSH" to my brother, Troy.

We were the children

I, Kristle Trapp, will my two younger brothers to anyone on the Kamiakin Staff who thinks that they can handle them.

I, Bob Trout, leave "Bubbles" Pierce her freedom for one year.

I, Maxine Vogel, leave my little-big sister my two old tennis rackets, so that her hopeful boyfriends can use them as stilts.

I, Kim Warren, leave the entire Kamiakin Drum Line to my old friend, Bobi Souder.

I, Lori Wells, bequeth nothing to Kamiakin High, but I do leave all the tricks of getting out sane to the students of the coming years.

I, Eric West, leave brains and body to the betterment of mankind.

I, Dawn White, being of hollow mind and body, will my "twinkle- toes" to whoever is clutzy enough to live with them.

Of yesterday.

Cat Stevens

I, Becky Woehler, just leave.

I, Michael Wright, leave all the best times I have had at school and just say to the Juniors - "Stay in and fight to graduate".

I, Cheryl Young, leave Mike Borsheim my curly hair as he is very lacking in this physical trait.

I, Mark Young, leave a cup of coffee and a loud car stereo to Mr. Krause.

The Calculus Class will their books, just like new, to any honors geometry student who is capable of the manufacturing and launching of paper airplanes.

THE REASON

WHY

composed by Linda Slick

We, the class of nineteen hundred and seventy-eight dedicate the 78 totem, to a lady who believes in us and takes the time to show that she cares.

MRS ON-LY

WITH YOU

When do we cease to peer through the clouds
When are we afraid to speak our words aloud
When do our eyes
no longer open wide N' when do we begin to find a place to hide - away.
The reason, the reason, the reason lies only with you.
Why don't we all just throw up our hands Why do we even take time to give a damn
Why is it that the time may never come to be When life can be real and we're able to fun free and find.

The reason the reason, the reason lies only with you.
Take time my friend, take time to bend, and find the reason for you.

Remember the smiles and the moments
